VOL. CXXXVII.—No. 143. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1921. PRICE TWO CENTS

SHIPMENT OF ARMS FOR IRISH SEIZED

Over 500 Modern Machine Guns Taken Off Ship At Hoboken

TIP GIVEN OFFICERS

Large Quantity of Spare Parts Also Found —Investigation is Begun—Owner Refuses to Talk

New York, June 16.—More than 500 modern machine guns with hundreds of spare parts, suspected by Government officials to have been destined for Ireland, were seized here yesterday by United States customs officials. The arms, found aboard the American steamship Eastside, were subsequently taken from the customs men as they were being carted away from the pier by Hoboken police, acting upon a search and seizure warrant sworn out by a man giving the name of Frank Williams.

No further information concerning him was available at Hoboken police headquarters. He alleged they had been stolen from him on June 11. The arms were taken to police headquarters at Hoboken and will be held pending a hearing before the Recorder to determine who is entitled to their custody.

According to reports reaching Government agencies, two changes of crews, brought about by the nation wide marine strike, resulted in discovery of the arms. It is reported that a member of one of the crews "tipped off" the Government investigators.

Presence of the arms on board the Eastside was not known to the owner of the ship, the United States Shipping Board or its managing operators, until they were informed of their discovery by Federal investigators. The Eastside cleared today for Norfolk, where, according to Chief of Police Hayes, of Hoboken, she was to take a cargo of coal for a port in Ireland.

Investigations as to how the arms came to be aboard, who caused them to be placed there and for whom they were intended are under way by officials of the Custom Service, the Department of Justice and the United States Shipping Board.

One report is that they were smuggled aboard from launches which came up to the ship's side at night, and the arms, swathed in burlap bags, were hoisted aboard as "engine room supplies." A curious member of the crew cut into one of these bags with a knife, disclosing a machine gun.

When a search was made the arms were found concealed in various parts of the ship. They were removed to the dock and placed under customs guard, and today, while being removed from the dock to a customs warehouse, fell into the hands of the police by virtue of the search and seizure warrant sworn out by Williams.

Government representatives would make on official statement on the matter pending conclusion of the investigations. Seizure by customs men is said to have been made on the ground that a shipment of arms was being attempted without compliance with maritime regulations, which call for manifesting all exports.

The Government investigators also were informed that, after the second crew had assumed charge of the ship, some unknown parties in a launch abiled the swtchman and asked permisison to remove from the vessel some "supplies" which had been delivered aboard the Eastside by mistake. The watchman refused to let the strangers aboard the ship without authority from the owners.

When the police officers went to pier to serve the warrant they were informed by the pier superintendent Chif of Police Hayes said, that the goods already had been removed by Denver, Col., June 16.—Control of the big mutual life insurance companies for the benefit of farmers and industrial workers through the use of provies of trades' union policy holders is contemplated in a resolution admitted to consideration by unanimous vote today of the convention of the American Federation of Labor on request of Matthew Wall.

By its terms the executive council is "authorized to conduct or cause to be conducted a thorough investigation into the use of savings and funds collected by banks and insurance compauies and uses of the credit system of the country; to make a careful study of the Kenyon rural credits bill and that consideration ge given the proposal of organizing the proxy-voting power of the workers holding policies in mutual companies."

Inasmuch as the vote of the convention in admitting it after the time for filing resolutions had expired was unanimous, there is no doubt of the action the convention will take when it is reported out by the committee

Analysis of the resolutions presented discloses that for the first time in several years not a single memorial having to do with Russia or the Soviets has been presented. This may be taken as an indication, that the radicals, who in other years have fought for Lenine and Trotzky, have abandoned hope of doing much in the Federation.

It also makes certain that the attacks William Randolph Hearst has been making upon Gompers through his papers will come up on the floor. This is assured by a resolution presented by John Fitzpatrick, of the Chicago Federated Union, denying the truth of reported attacks upon Gompers within that body and citing the report in question as "an example of the propaganda in which the Hearst papers are engaged, and which has for its purpose the destruction of the organized labor movement of America."

Another resolution by Thomas F. Flaherty and others in the postal service commends Postmaster General Hayes for his administration of the Postoffice Department.

Two resolutions on the rail situation have been submitted. One signed by representatives of all railroad organizations, directs the executive council "to assist the recognized railroad labor organizations by every effort within their power to have proper legislation enacted providing for Government ownership and democratic operation of the transportation systems of the United tSates.

The other resolution presented by a group of 10 delegates demands "prompt restoration of the railroads to unified Government operation."

Another resolution declares against the imposition of a retail or general sales tax or turn over tax, or any other tax on consumption, opposes the repeal of the excess profits tax, demands that the highest rate of taxaion levied during the war be retained until the full money cost of the war has been paid and that the Government promptly levy a rapid progressive tax upon large estates and a moderate tax upon the value of land and other natural resources speculatively held in order that the national debt may be promptly retired.

Two resolutions call for a revision of the Volstead act so that the

SENIORS HOLD CLASS NIGHT EXERCISES

Interesting Program Given at High School Auditorium Last Night

DANCE FOLLOWS

Praise Given Seniors by Principal Haydon in Farewell to Class—Program Greatly Enjoyed

The Senior Class of Alexandria High School entertained last night at the class night exercises. A large crowd gathered in the auditorium and listened to the propesies and histories of the class of '21. The proram was a particularly interesting one to all and was as follows: Wellcome address, Jack Dinwiddie, senior class president; acedemic class history, Miss Irma M. Wolf; commercial class history, Miss Mangaret Cook; acedemic class prophesy, Miss Dorothy Steele; commercial class prophesy, Miss Dorothy Moore; farewell to seniors, R. C. Haydon, principal of the high school.

The histories were of greatest interest to all who knew the classes, and the prophet showed great optimism regarding the future possibilities of the members of the graduating class.

In his farewell address, Mr. Haydon told of al this dealings with the class, which were most satisfactory and pleasing. He also said that while this class was as good in quality, it was by far the greatest in quantity of any class that has ever graduated from A. H. S., thus in an indirect way, saying that he judged it the best class in the history of the school.

At the conclusion of this brief program, the orchestra arrived and dancing was the main feature for the remainder of the evening. The dancers were issued paper caps and confetti and an uproarously good time was had by all until the orchestra sounded those sad sweet strains that reminded the joyful dancers that they had a nice peaceful home to which they should be going. The music was excellent and the night just cool enough for dancing, the result being a most enjoyable evening for all participating

KIWANIANS MAKE MERRY AT LUNCHEON

Get Charter and Also Presented With Handsome Banner

LIVELY GATHERING

Speechmaking and Songs and Music Mark Gathering of Business and Professional Men

About seventy-five members of the Kiwanis Club made merry this afternoon at its weekly luncheon held in the Westminster building. There was business and pleasure combined and the Kiwanians demonstrated conclusively that they are full of pep, age being no barrier when it comes to doin things. The affair was one of the most enjoyable and interesting given thus far by this organization and as George E. Warfield, president, said, it looked like Christmas, for the club not only received its charter but also was the recipient of a handsome banner.

Following prayer by Dr. Regester the ball was started rolling when Chief of Police Goods entered the hall and some one demanded to know his mission. The chief responded, "I have a warrant for George Warfield." "Go get him," cried a lusty voiced Kiwanian, whereupon the chief, a rather stockily built man, soon was beside the bank cashier and the warrant charging Mr. Warfield with having a parade without a permit was read. Randall Caton made an eloquent plea on behalf of Mr. Warfield and ended this oration by leaving his case in the hands of the Assistant Attorney General of the state, H. D. Hank, Jr., and Mr. Hank declared him acquitted. The band struck up a lively air and thus ended the first fun making in the club for the afternoon.

The Kiwanians soon got down to real business, first partaking of the delightful luncheon prepared. Music and songs came together.

Kenneth W. Ogden proved himself a good leader in this line and, although a veteran ex-firemen, time had not changed his voice.

He was given able support, although there was not close harimony among the songbirds. It might be added that jus ebfore the Kiwanians got down to the eats they unanimously re-elected Dr. George Baker of Washington and W. C. Worthington of Seminary Hill honorary members of the club.

George E. Warfield introduced H. D. Hank, Jr., assistant attorney general of the state who told of the purposes of the Kiwsians which organization he said stands for friendship, co-operation and service. Its idea he asserted is to build and he enumerated the various achievements the organization which he declared three years ago was only an experiment. He denied that the club was only a frolic party and said the club can be a potent influence in the local field for civic improvements.

A speech of acceptance was made by Mr. Warfield, who among other things said the club was organized six weeks ago and that the time has been spent in getting together and he added the club now would do some constructive work for the civic and economic welfare and he pledged the best efforts of the club along this line.

Dr. Baker, of Washington, of the inter city relations committee, presented the club with a handsome

Y. M. C. A. Movies

Attractive Program Arranged For This Week

The program of the motion pictures to be shown free by the Y. M. C. A. this week sounds especially attractive. "The Serpent's Tooth," "Heroes All," and a "Trip to Santa Catalina Islands" are listed to be shown in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce this Saturday afternoon at 8 p. m.

Because of the opportunity of the school boys to attend the baseball game in Washington on Friday as the guests of Mr. Jordon, there will be no movies shown especially for boys on Friday of this week. Boys will be welcomed, however, at the showing on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock followin the girls sewing class.

The general public is always cordially invited to see these Y. M. C. A. films, also. It is a pleasure to show to the parents and teachers of the boys and girls who are the regular attendants at these free exhibitions just what types of pictures the "Y" shows. Every program is full of interest. The value of the visual education which the children are unconsciously receiving in this way would be difficult to estimate.

City Manager Plan

The City Manager Plan is growing by leaps and bounds all over the United States. At the present time there are no less than 223 towns and cities in this country under city manager government. Of these, 159 have espoused the plan by charter amendment or adoption, and 64 by city ordinance. The population of the cities under this plan ranges from the little town of Osborne Penna., with 308 people, to the city of Akron, Ohio, with 208,000 inhabitants. Many of the cities that had already adopted the commission form of government are now considering a change to city manager form. The two forms, although often mistakenly considered as identical, are yet widely different. The city manager plan is the more recent and was designed to cure certain defects which time and experience demonstrated to exist in the commission form. It involves a small elective council who serve for nominal salaries, and who compose the city's legislative body. They are given the power to hire and discharge an official known as the city manager, who is the non-political overseer of the city's business affairs. He appoints and discharges his subordinate department heads at will. The minor employees are usually chosen under civil service regulations. The city manager is usually chosen with regard solely to his qualifications as a business executive, and absolutely without reference to political affiliation. He may or may not be a resident of the city at the time of his appointment. The same principles apply in his selection as would govern the choice of the executive of a large industrial concern.

In a commission government each commissioner becomes an active head of a department, under the supervision of all the others as a body. The weakness inherent in this is that the commissioners are usually amateurs in their respective departments, with neither training nor experience. It is group government with all the vices of group responsibility. That is, each one looks to the others to attend to his own work, and there is the usual relaxation of individual effort, with no one upon whom to fix the blame.

City managership has become a profession. The small elective body, known as the council, appoint the city manager on the basis of his specialized ability as a city executive. He is held responsible for the success or failure of his administration.

The manager idea has done away with the old spoils system. The city's affairs are looked after with the same zeal and fidelity as would be those of a large industrial enterprise. This means not only the saving of thousands of dollars annually, but the absolute equivalent of a dollar's worth of value for every dollar expended. It is a pledge of economy. It is good business put into active practice.

We believe the sentiment of Alexandria today to be overwhelmingly in favor of this form of city government. We urge every citizen to cast his vote at the proper time, and see to it personally, that the measure may not be defeated for lack of interest at the polls. The committee recently appointed to prepare the plans are actively at work, and the Gazette will publish from time to time the results of their labors.

SHIPMENT OF ARMS FOR IRISH SEIZED

the customs authorities. A search of the pier was made, however, and the officers reported to the chief that they found the arms loaded on a truck. A futile clash between police and customs officers followed, which was settled by the customs man in charge agreeing that the arms should be taken to the police station and held there pending judicial determination of their ownership.

Williams' application made no mention of the circumstances under which the arms were alleged to have been stolen nor how he obtained possession of them.

When seen by reporters in Recorder Carston's court, Mr. Williams declined to discuss the matter and refused to give his Hoboken address. Thomas J. O'Neill, his attorney, professed to know little about Mr. Williams' affairs, other than that he represented himself to be in the munitions business.

Washington, June 16.—The Department of Justice last night ordered its agents in New York to make an investigation of the arms seized on the steamer Eastside at Hoboken to decide whether they constituted a shipment for aboard. The report probably will be transmitted to the State Department, officials said, in case it is found that a shipment was intended, for a decision as to whether it can be moved.

WOMAN FOUND IN LAKE THOUGHT TO BE SUICIDE

Lakewood, N. J., June 16.—Mystery surrounds the identity and death of a modishly dressed woman whose body was found floating today near the north shore of Lake Crasaljo. A woman's coat, a handbag and a silver tipped walking stick, found on the lake bank, lend substance to the belief that the case is one of suicide.

Torn parts of a letter written in German and sent from Brazil also found on the bank, indicate that the woman had two sons and a daughter travelling in that country. The name Hartman, deciphered in the letter which was written upon fashionable country club stationery, may have been the woman's name. The body is now in the Lakewood morgue.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear father, JOHN S. GREY, who departed from us two weeks ago, May 31, 1921.

As the evening sun is setting,
And I often sit alone,
In my heart there comes a feeling,
If my father could only come home
I dream of his face that I love,
His face I am longing to see,
I will never forget my father,
He is all the world to me.

By his daughter,
143-1p. Eva.

SPORTS

If you are familiar with any of these names in sandlot ball in Washington you may know that you cannot find a better lineup in that city This is the best ball club that has come out of Washington to this city in the last five years, and you will see a game that will equal anything played here.

The D's are ready and will show you that same old team work with consistent hitting and all they ask is your support, both finacially and the rooting end of it and with a even break of luck will send them back across the river with another victim added to the list of the D's.

Trinity M. E.	2	2	500

What A Tonic Does For You

And Why you Need it, in so Many Instances When You Are Run Down Nervous or Have Had to Endure Great Strain or Worry of Any Kind

A tonic is something which puts tone, energy, strength and endurance into you. It gives a push to your heart making it pump the blood over your body more vigorously; it makes your lungs expand more fully and thereby take up more strength-giving oxygen from the air you breathe; it makes your kidneys work better and carry off the poisons which would otherwise accumulate in the body; it makes your diestive apparatus perform its work better and give your blood the material it needs for feeding and sustaining your body: It makes your brain act more vigorously and enables you to think more accurately and for long periods without fatigue. thus bringing you greater success in whatever business, profession or undertakin you are engaged.

When you are rundown, nervous, half sick, down-hearted and about ready to give up experience of many years has shown that one of the best remedies to pull you out of this bad predicament is good old organic iron. But be sure the iron you tak is organic iron, ith kind that is fund in plants, and not metallic iron ,which people usually take. Organic iron may be had from your druggist under the name of Nuxated Iron. It often increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, tired out folks in two-weeks time. Beware of substitutes. Always look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

OFFER $750,000,000 FOR NEW U. S. NOTES

Washington, D. C., June 16.—Heavy over subscription of the combined issue of 3 year 5 3-4 per cent Treasury certificates of indebtedness was announced by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon last night when subscriptions closed. The combined offering was $500,000,000. Preliminary reports received by telegraph last night from the twelve Federal reserve banks indicated that the total amount subscribed is in excess of $750,000,000. That both offerings proved unusually popular with investors is shown by the fact that more than the $750,000,000 subscribed was approximately equally divided between the 1 year certificates and the 3 year notes. It is understood that in making the allotments, the Treasury will issue about half of the total in certificates and half in 3 year notes. It appears certain that the subscriptions will be scaled down materially in making the allotments.

brewing and sale of beers may be permited, while several ask that the convention set up from one to a half score of daily newspapers. None arranges for the necessary funds, as does a resolution providing for the establishment of an American Federation of Labor university. In this later resolution the raising of approximately $4,000,000 at once and an annual maintenance fund of $1,000,000 is provided for through the levying of assesments.

A freak resolution presented by S. H. Gardner, of Cleburne, Texas, instructs the executive council to take all necessary steps to secure a constitutional amendment forbidding declaration of war save by popular vote, and further providing that in the event of such referendums carry ing, those who vote for it be the first compelled to bear arms.

The Mooney case comes up in the form of a request that $500 be appropriated for publicity purposes to aid in freeing Mooney and his associate, Billings.

Other resolutions under consideration by committees provide; For the federation setting up a moving picture business; prohibition of loans by Feedral Reserve Banks for speculative purposes; indorsement of the Near East Relief movement; nonemployment of aliens in navy yards; old age and unemployment insurance; approval of North Dakota bonds; control of the packers; election of all federation officers by referendum, and a six hour day.

Resolutions covered by the executive council's report include attacks upon the open shop movement; approval of vocational training for persons injured inindustry, and support of the printing trades' right for the shorter work day.

SEVEN FIREMEN KILLED WHEN TRUCK HITS TRAIN

Perth Amboy, N. J., June 16.—Seven firemen were killed and nine others injured when a fire truck crashed into the tender of the Barnegat express at the Market street crossing of the Central Railroad of New Jersey at 5:50 o'clock yesterday evening. The firemen, members of the Eagle Hose and Chemical Company, a volunteer organiaztion, were on their way to a small warehouse fire when the accident occurred.

Fire department officials declared last night that the safety gates at the crossing were not down when the express bound from Jersey to Barnegat and traveling at the rate of more than 40 miles an hour, hove in to sight. The driver of the motor fire truck also traveling at a fast clip tried frantically to avoid the collision, witnesses said, but crashed into the tender of the fast moving train. The firemen on the truck were thrown to the ground, some of them falling beneath the wheels of the train and being instantly killed. The injured were taken to the Perth Amboy Hospital.

ENJOYABLE OUTING

(Communicated)

One of the most enjoyable picnics of the season was celebrated at Fair View farm, Fairfax county, about three miles west of Alexandria by the youngest children of St. Mary's Academy, and the ladies that worked so zealously for the bazaar.

Fair View is beautifully situated on knoll overlooking Alexandria and Washington in the distance and surrounded by a most picturesque country is worthy of its name.

The day being an ideal one and the little tots reflect great credit upon the Sisters of St. Mary's, and will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to be present.

Strange to say, there was only one dark spot appeared upon the horizon to mar the pleasure of the day for a time and that was the loss of old black Joe, but after a most diligent search through the woods, we located him.

Thanking the Sisters, and also Mr. Thomas Kelly and Mr. James McGowan, for their untiring efforts, contributed to he ending o a perfect day spent at Fair View farm, we bade farewell and returned home.

ALADDIN SECURITY OIL STANDARD OIL COMPANY

AND when you decide to bake or stew you'll be able to do either on a New Perfection Oil Cook Stove—with the least possible trouble. All the heat you want for any kind of cooking is ready in an instant. No waiting for the coal fire to "come up".

The white-tipped New Perfection flame produces quick, clean heat and the long blue chimney drives it all up to the cooking utensil or oven. All the heat is used to cook with. None of it is wasted in the form of soot on your pans; only a negligible amount is radiated about the kitchen, which makes for comfort, even on warm days.

Then, too, the three million and more housekeepers who use New Perfections are not bothered in their kitchens with coal, ashes, dust, wood and litter. And they know what a saving of time and labor that means.

The New Perfection is sturdily built throughout, is equipped with brass burners and will last for many years with ordinary care.

For best results use clean, pure Aladdin Security Oil—it's economical—for it's all heat.

New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves are sold at most department, furniture and hardware stores.
